Dedication

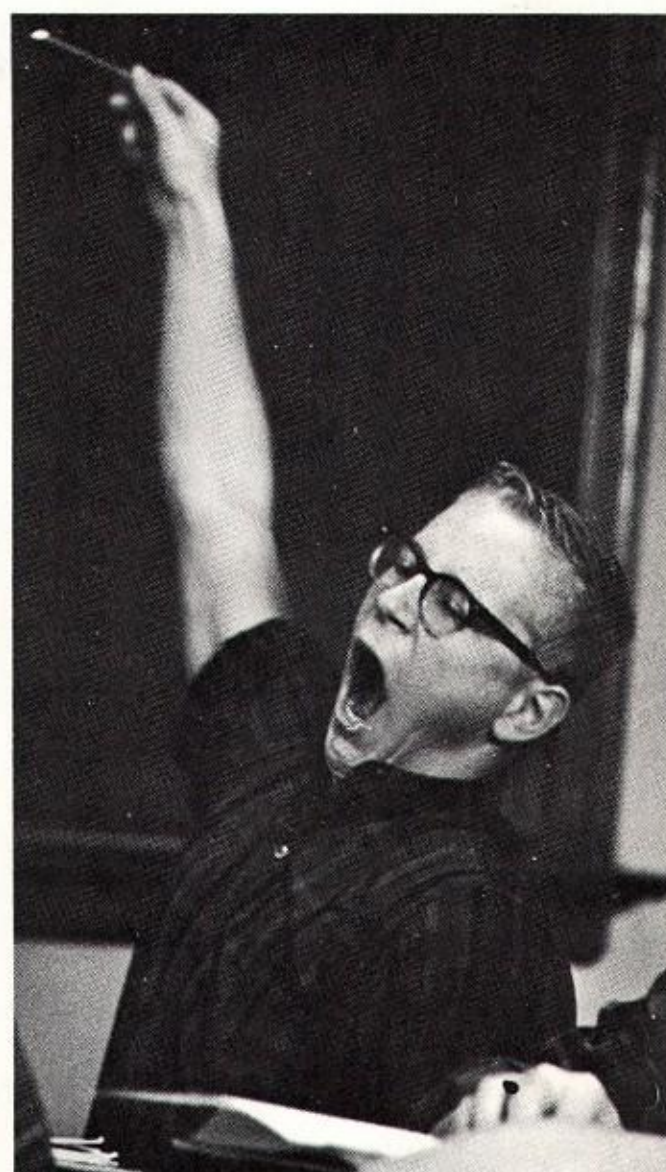

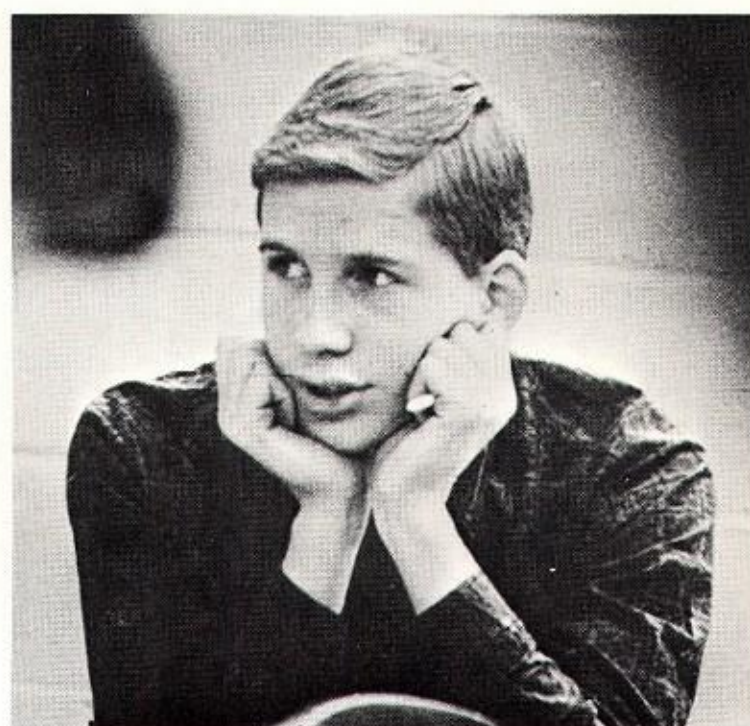

We dedicate these efforts to one who is known to all as an outstanding teacher. Few of us realize, however, the many other capacities in which he has served our school. He guided PHS in former years as its principal; he has led the band and was the founder of the organ club. He continues to evince his great interest in student affairs through his sponsorship of school activities, as well as by his unobtrusive concern for all of his pupils. A kind quiet person, this man is an excellent example of human understanding and is truly a gentle man.

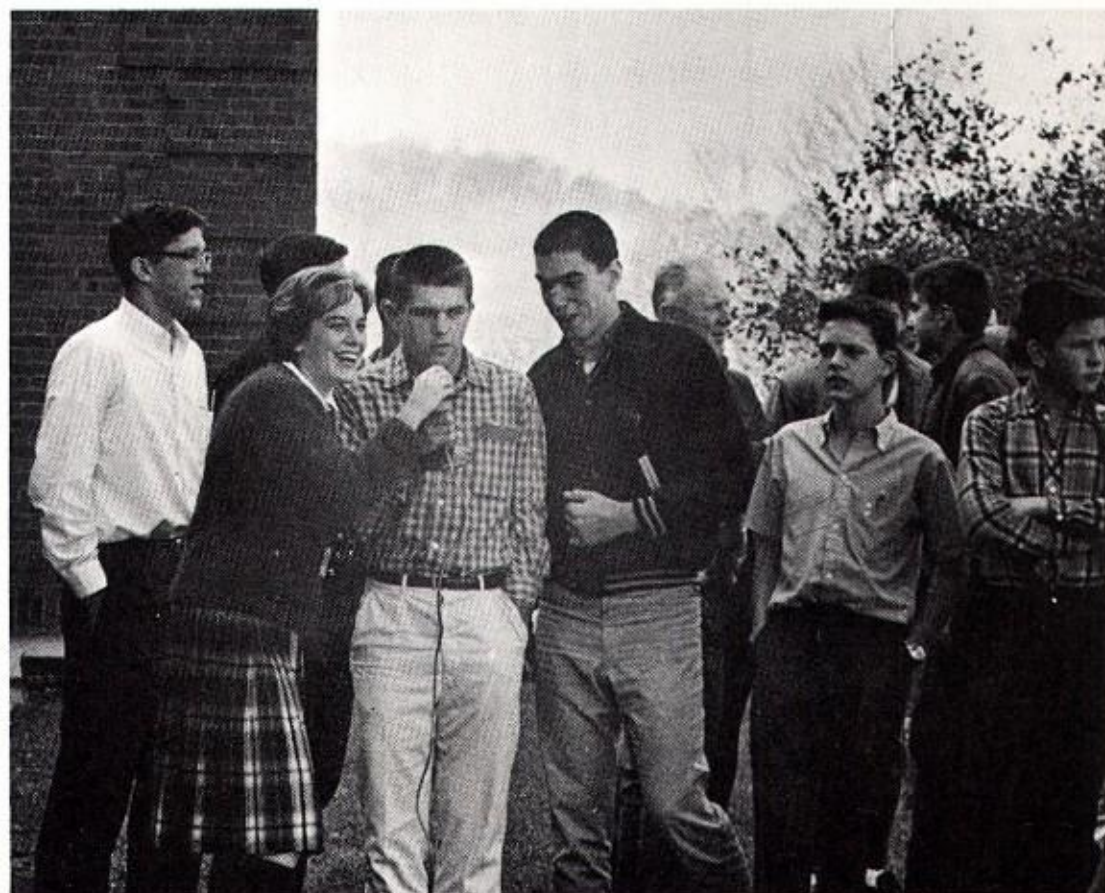

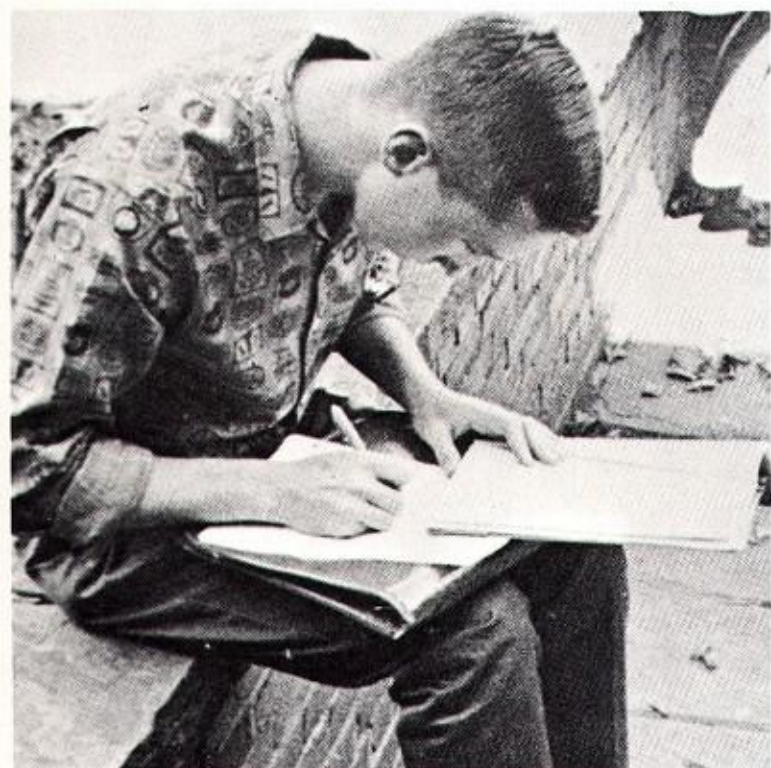

It is with respect and appreciation that we dedicate this yearbook to OSCAR FOSSUM

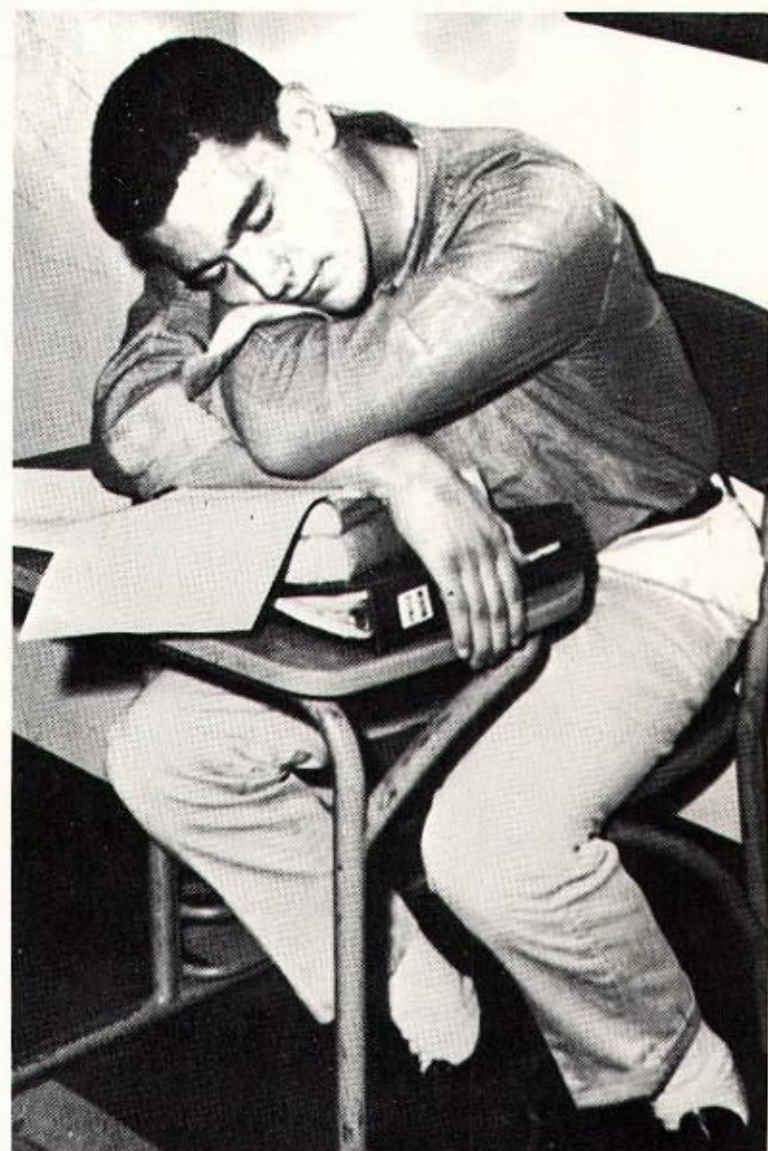

Day in School

MRS. JUNGMAN

We are indebted to Mrs. Jungman
Whom we first met as secretary
And later came to know
As store-keeper, banker, postmistress, and adviser.
She is our silent helping hand through every dilemma;
Our first and last resort for a needed solution.
Blest with patience and diligence, cheerfulness
and warmth,
She has endeared herself to us.

JK

JEANETTE KIEFER

"If you don't keep quiet, I'm going to send you down to study hall" . . . "Has everyone signed the sheet?" . . . always willing to help . . . advises Library Club . . . passes for the masses.

JEAN TRUAX

Dispenses candy, Kleenex, and good advice . . . transcripts and working papers . . . warm, good-natured and witty . . . ably assisted by Mr. Hall and Mrs. Hogue.

JK

Guidance

HERMAN HALL

Senior guidance counselor, Mr. Hall is both college and business ambassador for every one of us . . . "Well, it'll be hard to explain your 400 to Radcliffe." . . . Prowling study halls with that knowing look . . . "You'd better improve NOW before it's too late!" . . . successfully effecting our goals.

Hall

DOROTHY HOGUE

Has more burdens than most . . . she carries hers and everyone else's too in guiding us "likely" scholars . . . a whiz on the hockey field as well as in the office . . . "I must show you that play sometime!" . . . "MOVE!" . . . relaxes with a box of YMCA mints only to begin again with more work and Tri-Hi-Y . . . never misses a basketball game . . . always in the football stands . . . a Tempest without door handles?

Coratti

JOSEPH CORATTI

Friendly . . . funny . . . Always peering over your shoulder . . . Freshman passes from the Library . . . "We must revise the Constitution" . . . Football really RATES . . . Freshman class adviser.

English

HERMAN WITTERN

Composition vocabulary . . . symbolism . . . discussions . . . Panthers beat Foxes . . . On noon-duty, always with a crossword puzzle . . . encouragement to the '63 Quill and friendly tips . . . glad to have Mr. Wittern back at PHS.

H.W.

PRISCILLA HENKEN

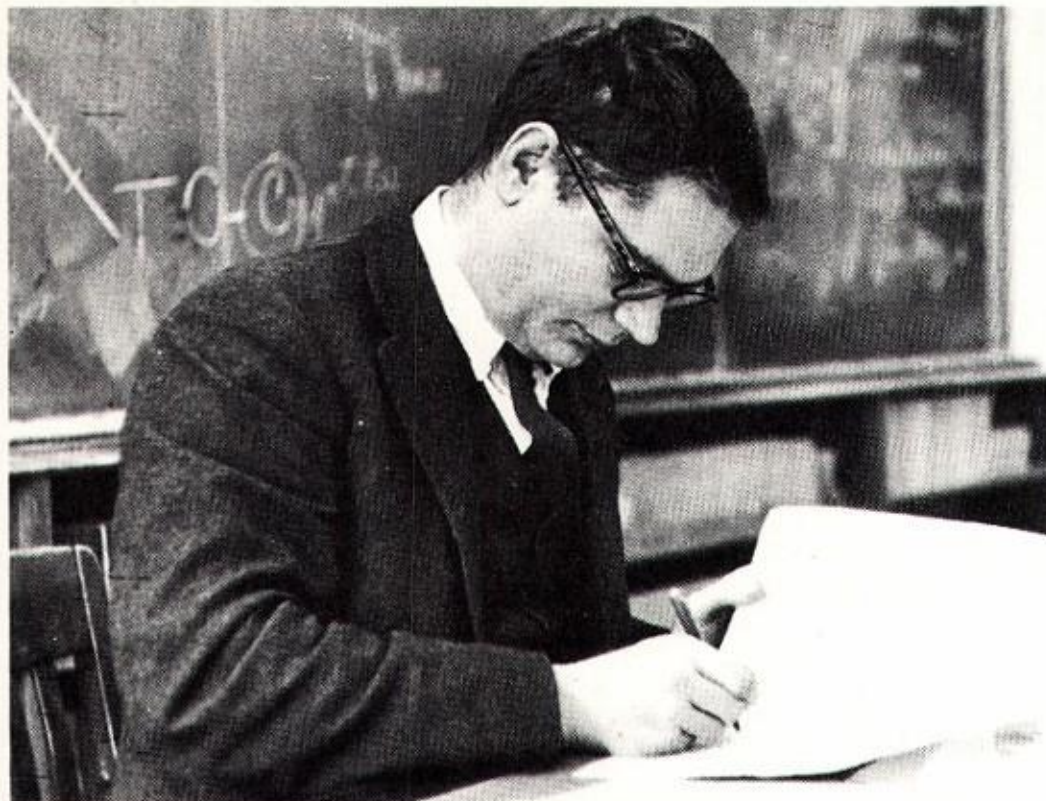

Human-teenage-understanding . . . Pleasantville has had the real pleasure of this teacher's inspirational English classes . . . "Yes, this is going to count" . . . you see . . . an individualist at heart . . . "Gladly would she learn and gladly teach."

P. J. Henken

HARRIET KOSHAR

Efficient and witty . . . favors and enforces rigorous "work right up to the bell" policies in study hall . . . has been known for her vituperative quips . . . "stand not upon the order of your going, but go at once," when sending students out of the classroom . . . "tell it to the class" . . . "Close the windows—all the way!"

H.K.

WILLIAM CAMPBELL

Temper but insight to dynamic teaching . . . a new English instructor, Mr. Campbell now shares the burden of Portrait publication . . . no Green Quill supporter.

W.C.

JEAN MACFARLANE

"Mac of the Far Lane" . . . "Pink, pink, and more pink" . . . her English classroom is her own . . . "Write it with a small 'f'" . . . rival Green Lantern censor . . . broke into her own car . . . kitties, collies, and "wine-dark sea".

J.K.M.

MARGARET SMITH

"No clips, no gum, no—yes, bring your books" . . . "Were you talking?" . . . Study hall and "you'll have to ask Mr. 'P'" . . . "Any problems, questions or announcements?"

T.K.G.

THERESA GRILLO

On St. Patrick's Day, Mrs. O'Grill . . . "Monitor!" . . . fighting for rights in Boston . . . abridged Great Expectations, but JOHNNY TREMAIN . . . St. Valentine's Day Lincoln . . . lindys with Bob O'Keefe, but twists with the Class of '65.

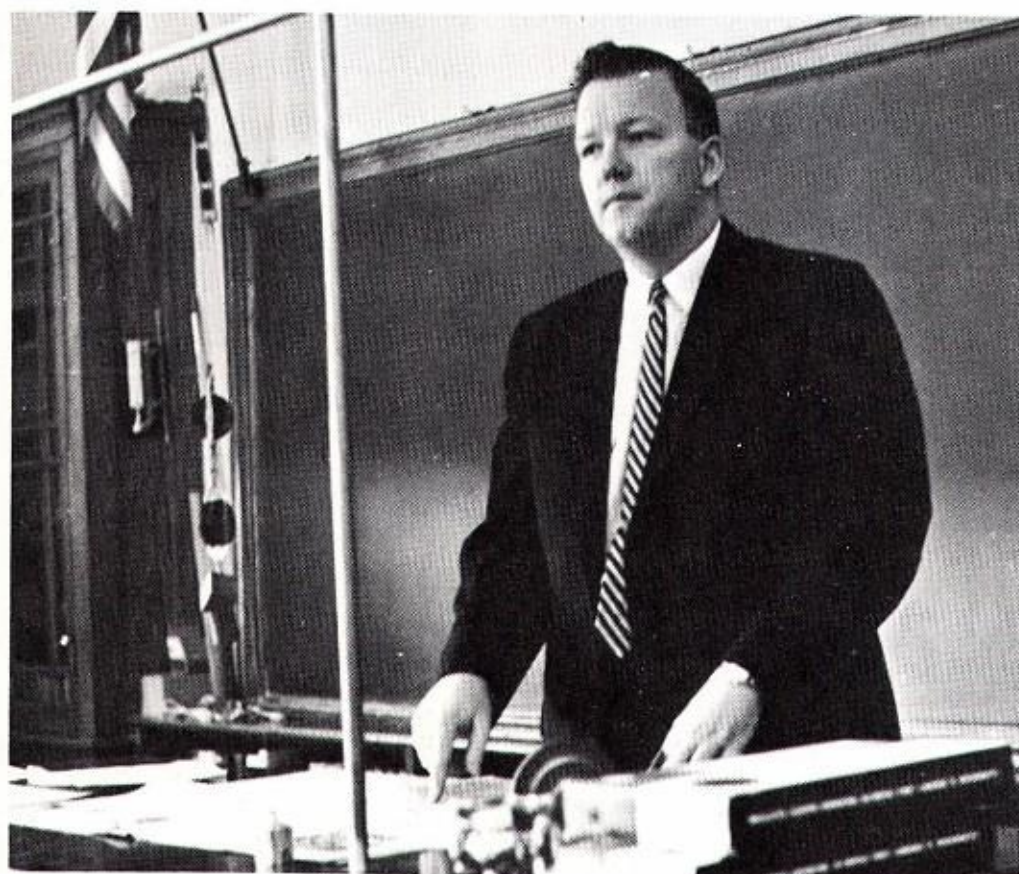

Science

CHARLES WRIGHT

Senior class adviser . . . "Words to the wise"
 . . . fond of all non-flying biological organisms
 . . . orange carnations on St. Patrick's Day . . .
 "It's not that bad" . . . "Smile" . . . "How about that."

Charles Wright

JAMES MCLOUGHLIN

"Professor" with the dangling key chain . . . "Look both ways before crossing the hall" . . . All students must have purpose in life and enjoyable high school memories . . . master of basketball team, hall conferences, and Junior Prom tickets (and YEARBOOKS!)
 . . . learn from your mistakes!!!

Due to the many major advances in Science today, the burden on this department has been vastly increased. Even with summer foundation work, Saturday courses, and numerous publications, our teachers find it difficult to keep abreast of current findings. From Physics' PSSC courses to AIBS (American Institute of Biological Sciences) and Chemical Bonding courses, the American Association for the Advancement of Science is continually introducing more complex work for the teacher and student. It is hoped that such aids as Team Teaching and closed-circuit television may relieve some of the instruction problems caused by limited space.

LLEWELLYN NELSON

One of the gang . . . blushing biology classes
 . . . Lllewelllyn . . . PHS' only man-tailored lab coat . . . after school parties . . . "wahtah".

EVELYN WRIGHT

Dog under the bed . . . "Did Mr. Wright say that?" . . . very pro-ra—bies shots . . . house cleaning . . . "Get rid of that gum!" . . . what a smile!

John Hoose

JOHN HOOSE

Wishy-washy John E. Doe! . . . lord and master of the residues . . . 6.02×10^{23} . . . "Humbug!" . . . assembly cynic . . . Corona-Coronas . . . "all for the Rotary" . . . "a nickel a day keeps the locker key in play" . . . SLOB list . . . always manages a FREE yearbook.

IRWIN BITTER

Red hair and green lab coat . . . Hockey-prone daughter . . . adviser of the Projection Crew . . . man behind the scenes (pep rallies, dances, etc.).

IRN

EDWIN HEIDEMAN

"We wouldn't want to keep you after school now, would we?" . . . "You thought Earth Science was going to be a snap, huh?" . . . Being rather vociferous, Mr. Heideman's interest in imparting knowledge to his students will make him long remembered . . . he soon will bring a taste of fame to PHS when his Earth Science lab manual is published.

Mathematics

G. Zahn

GEORGE ZAHN

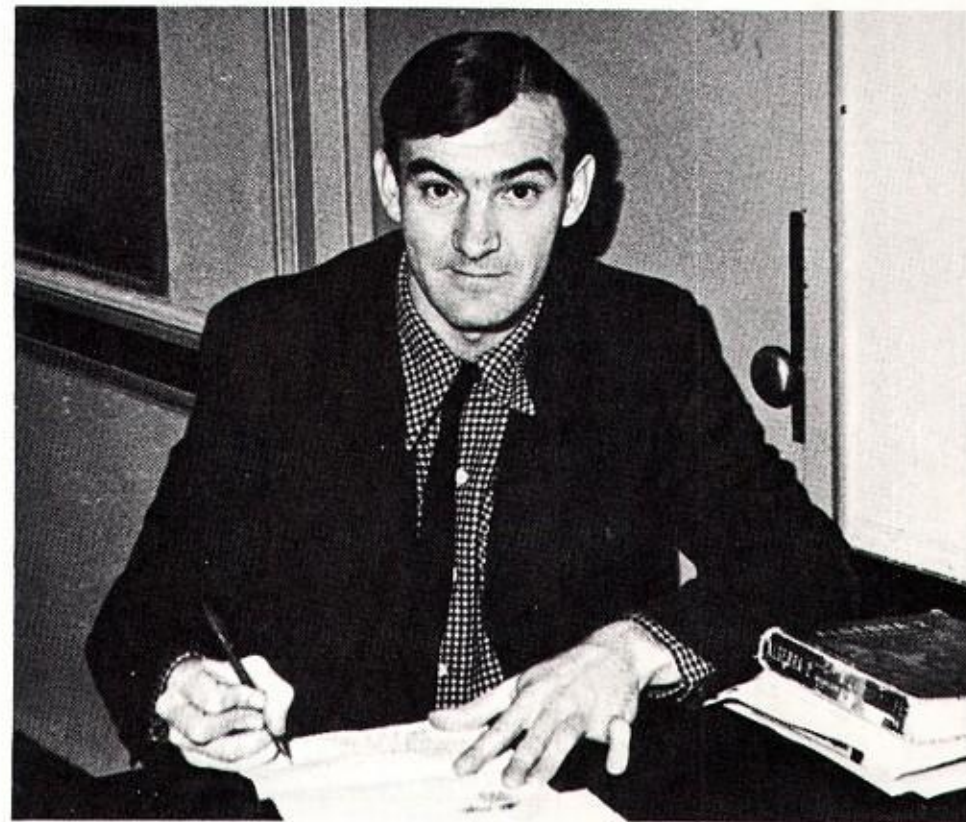

"Way out" . . . colorful vests . . . terrific teacher . . . the ex-pug and the college bug . . . (SWIAC co-champions . . . Relax!) . . . Musical chairs in the SENIOR home-room.

JOYCE KOEHLER

"We talked about" . . . rings, rings, and more rings . . . "Yes, this is a quiz" . . . ask any question you want, but . . . know the definition . . . circles and theorems.

JK

GERALD SOLIN

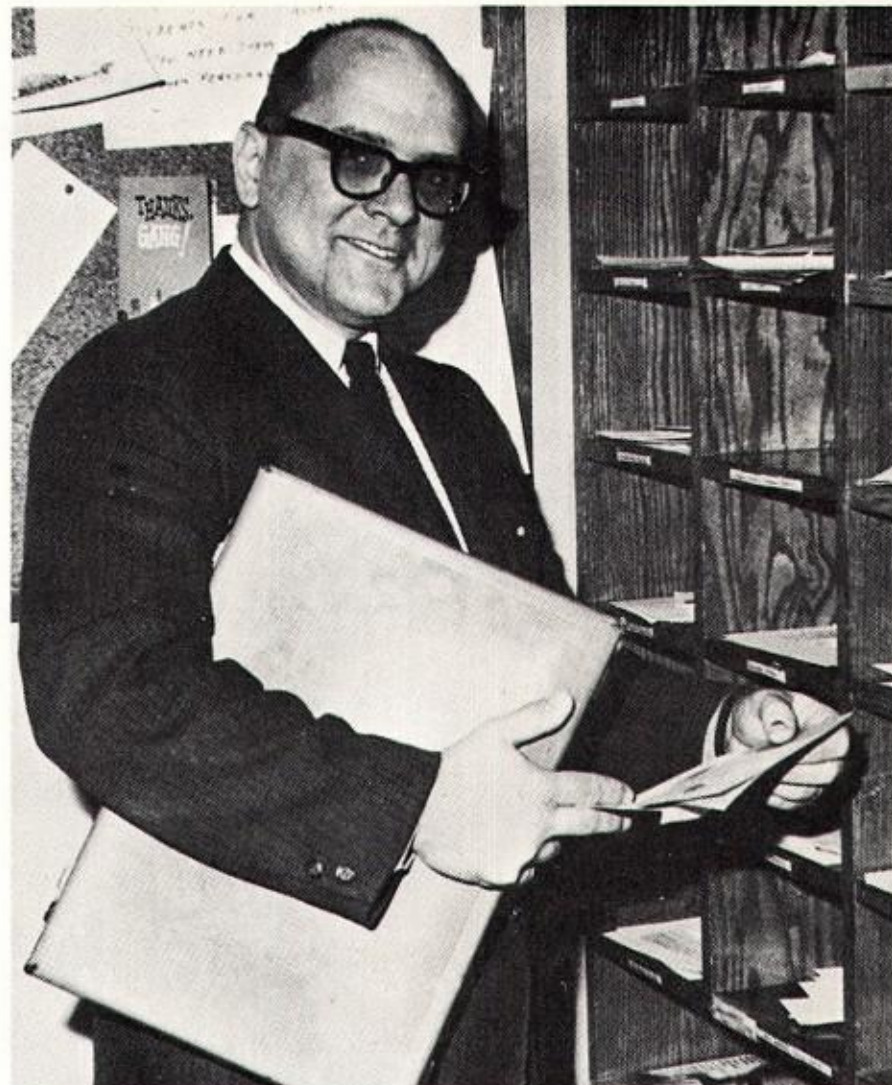

GENIUS of the Math Department . . . sneaks to the teachers' room . . . Math Club and difficult problems . . . Oh, those dot games . . . "No, you go first" . . . Junior Class mentor . . . "Don't panic" . . . "Who ate my eraser?" . . . "Here's the money, go buy yourself a ticket to the play, from a Junior!" . . . "Close the windows gently now!"

G. Solin

The purpose of the Math Department is to provide the student with a sound mathematical background for his future vocation or for any further training he may receive. The level of studies ranges from elementary courses to the college level Math 12X. Since the inception of "Operation Upgrade", this section has received increased emphasis as a department and a corresponding increase of student interest. It is now the largest department in the school, and one of the most popular.

Obed B. Ely

OBED ELY

"I've given up on you" . . . knows just EVERYONE! . . . class discussions . . . educational Pogo . . . advice to the lovelorn . . . NY Times crossword puzzles in INK! . . . N. Gabriel

DONNA HAWKER

Seniors are best . . . Speaks French with a West Virginia accent . . . "No homework if you go to the Halloween House" . . . "People! You are being rude!"

It has become a necessity in today's world for people to be able to communicate with each other. The language barrier, which has always been the greatest obstacle to this end, is diminishing day by day. This is due for the most part to increased language instruction in the schools.

Pleasantville High School is fortunate in having so many advantages to its language program. We have excellent teachers, some of whom are teaching their native tongue. Our French instruction begins in elementary school, and high school credit is given in junior high school. A wonderful new addition this year is the language laboratory complete with facilities for each student to listen, speak, and record his own speech on tape.

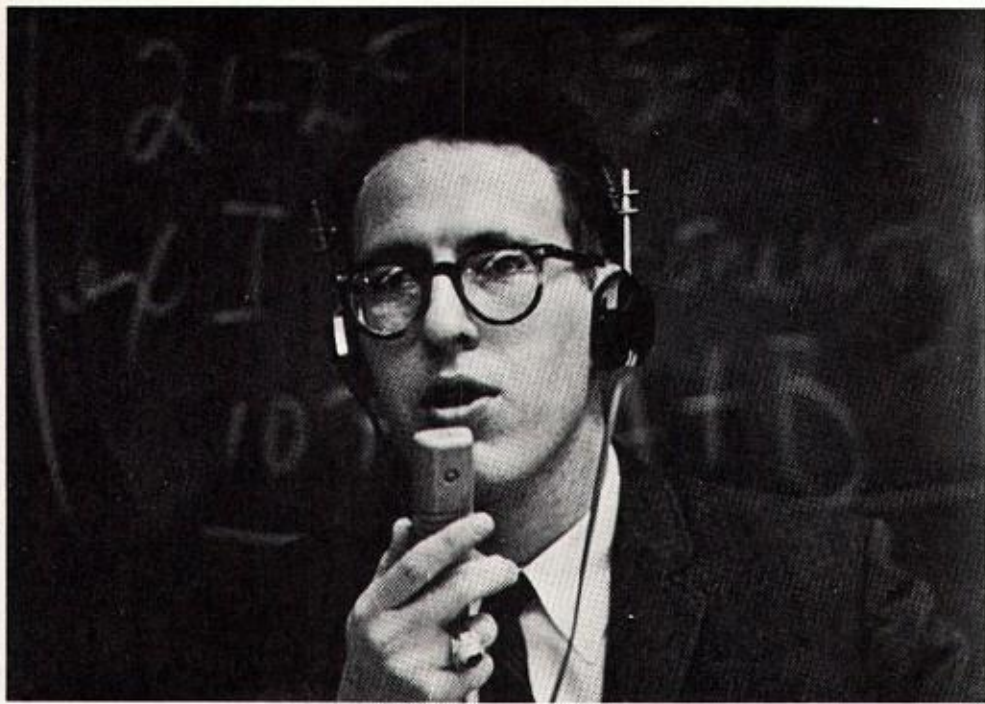

GERARD BOMBARDIER

Mr. Bomb . . . "Bonjour mes élèves, pour demain" . . . "Ré-ré-ré-pé-pé-pé-tez-tez-tez . . . et essayer!" . . . Starched collars and shaving lotion, but OH that chalk . . . The Class of 1964 began its Junior year by showing all the other classes what is meant by spirit. Their loud display of spirit at pep rallies and games contributed greatly to our achieving SWIAC again this year. The Juniors also followed their predecessors in scholarship when eleven members from their class were proudly admitted to the National Honor Society. Despite being deprived of their Clean-Up Committee this year, the Junior Class has succeeded in keeping a stiff upper lip.

The Junior Prom "The Crystal Balle" was a social as well as financial success. President Henry DeNero was crowned king and Nancy McCain, his queen. And as next year's Senior Class, the Juniors claim will rise to even greater heights and accomplishments. Only next year will show how much greater.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

The Class of '65, under the leadership of Phil Horning, President, Helen Neubert, Vice-Pres., Lynn Evelyn, Secretary, and Kathy Speare, Treas., entered PHS in 1961 to make a success of their Spring Dance—"Stairway to the Stars," and, in general, of their freshman year. As 1962-63 rolled around, the new sophomores of PHS made notice as the loudest class, which is reasonable, considering that it is also the largest class in the school. Officers for this year are: Bob Whitely, President, John Lemasters, Vice-Pres., Lynn Evelyn, Secretary, and Kathy Speare, Treasurer. Their fall "Premiere on Broadway" was just short of profit. A debt of gratitude is extended to their adviser, Mr. Paratore, who will follow the Class of '65 through to graduation.

ACTIVITIES

Student

We, of the Student Government, have direct concern
With constitution fine points which we try to discern.
Of the student body we attempt to take good care,
To pass firm laws and promote the general welfare.
To Tanganyika we sent sundry communications
And gained friendship and knowledge as remunerations.

February brought Students' Day and teachers' vacation

While classes by students relaxed in elation.
"Rye on the Rocks" was financially successful,
But our primary project was Lia, the Dutch duchess,
full

Of warmth and learning and Hollandish cheer,
Throughout the village and school for the year.
By assiduity, patience, and artful insight,
Through work and leadership and Miss Haack's
guiding light,

And through difficulty and tumult we steadfastly oared;

The year had not rest, but success and reward.

Noon Athletic Commission

The Noon Athletic Commission was formed at the end of last year by the merger of the Athletic Council and the Noon Hour Commission. As a result of this merger, a wide number of activities are sponsored by this group. The Commission provides rooter buses for away football and basketball games and creates spirit for these games by holding pep rallies throughout the year.

An annual event at PHS is the Commission's Talent Show which is staged by the seniors.

Sara Jackman

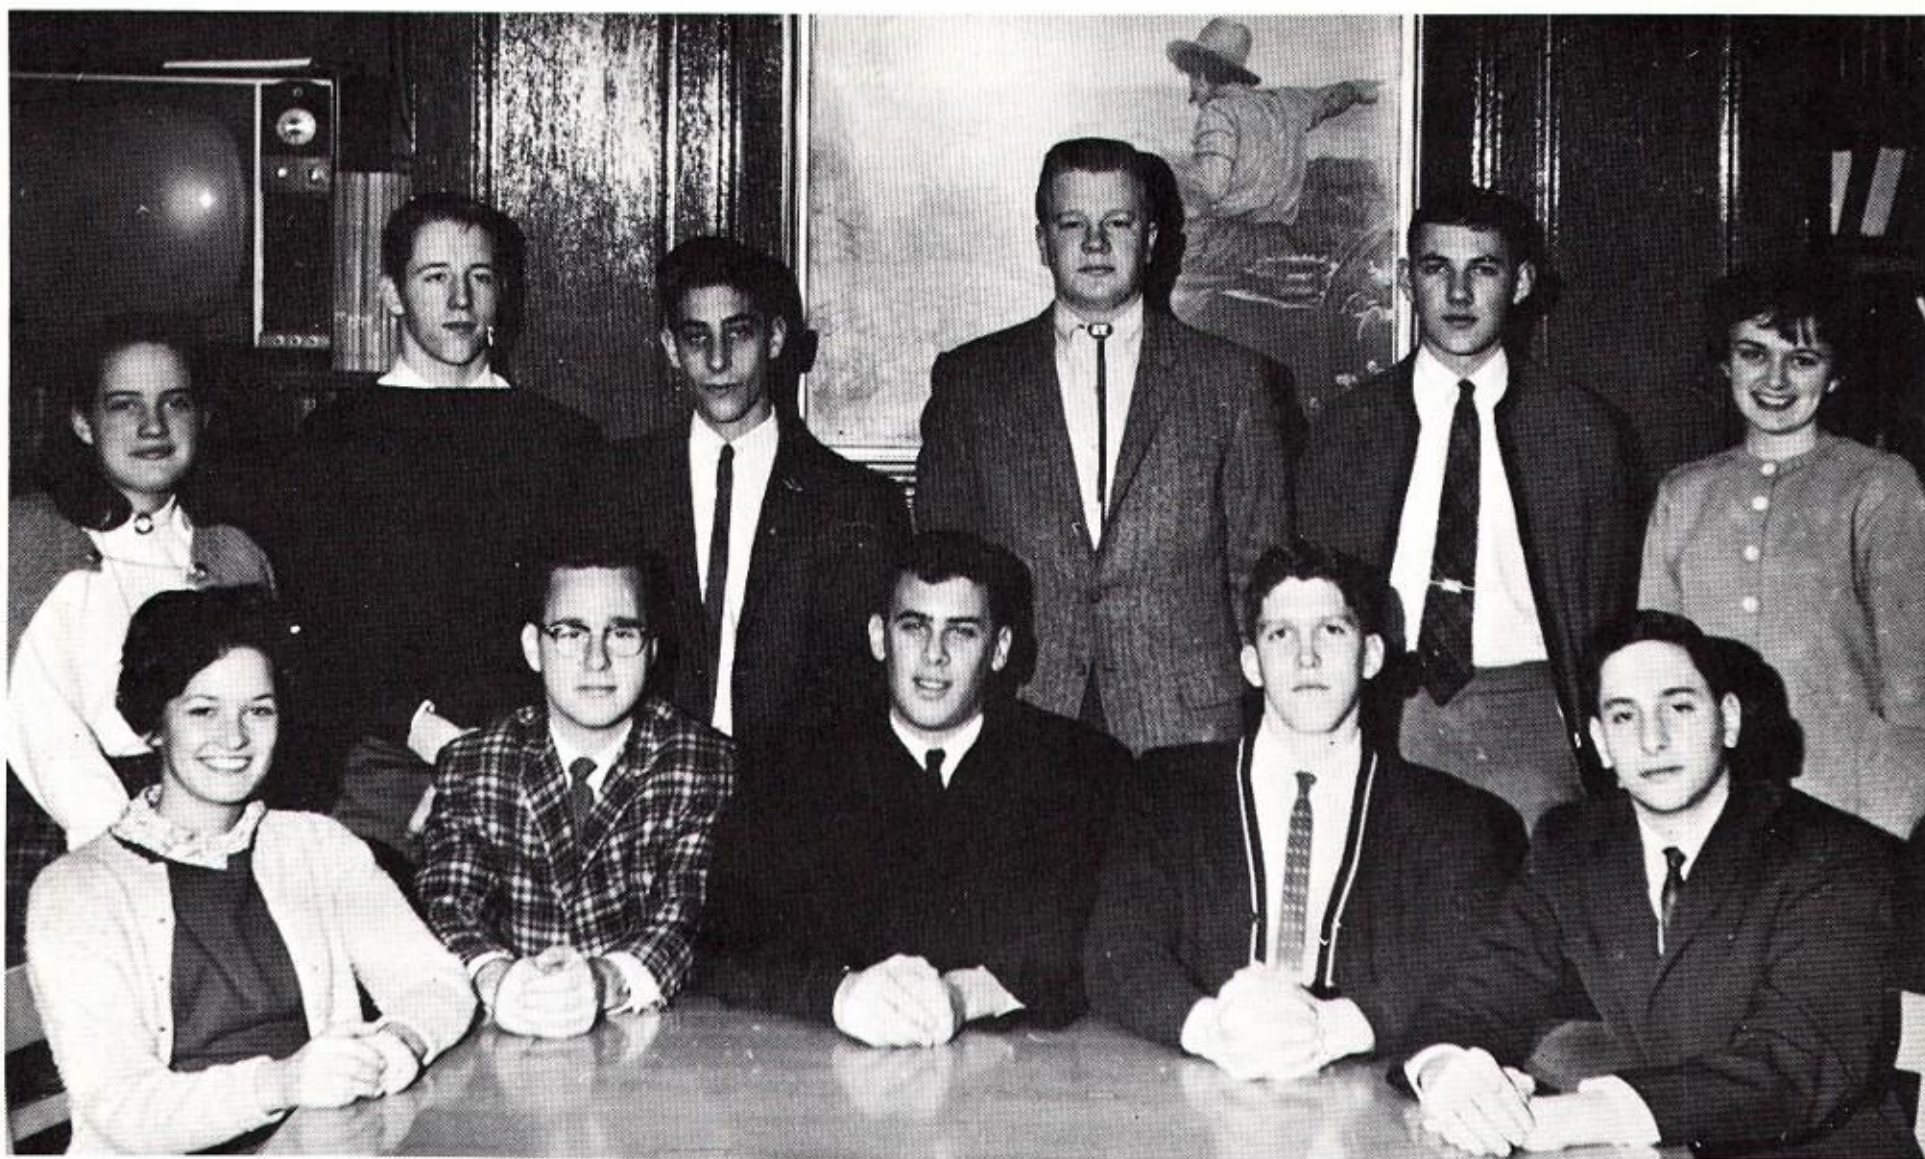

Junior Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross is one of the largest service activities in PHS. The council, which meets every Friday morning, consists of two delegates from each homeroom. However, all who contribute to this organization are considered members. For the seniors in the Junior Red Cross, the last four years have been especially interesting. Projects such as decorating the V. A. hospital at Montrose, sending school and medical supplies to India, and giving Christmas presents to children at Grasslands Hospital have been very rewarding. This year the Junior Red Cross has also continued its annual custom of giving baskets of food to families in the area.

Student Court

Pleasantville High Police

The PHP is a service organization made up of senior, junior, and sophomore boys and advised by Mr. Beattie. In conjunction with the Student Court and Student Gov't it enforces the laws of the school. The force operates at all extracurricular school activities, including such functions as school dances, student plays, and noon-hour events. The purpose of PHP supervision of these events is not, as some students may think, to give out summonses, but rather to prevent any infraction of school rules.

Future Teachers

With the indispensable and inspiring advice of their mainstay, Mrs. Henken, the Future Teachers' Club attempts to give its members a better understanding of the field of teaching. It corresponds with other schools to coordinate activities of similar clubs. The members are given an opportunity to sit in on a regular session of any of the classes in the Junior High or elementary schools.

Planning and Leadership Committee

The Planning and Leadership Committee is comprised of the presidents of the school's major organizations and representatives from each class. The Committee's purposes are to aid in the planning of school functions, encourage and promote leadership, make proposals and suggestions, and act as a liason between students and administration.

Mr. McCreary, as principal of the school, is faculty advisor of the Planning and Leadership Committee.

Organ Club

One of the most outstanding, though least known clubs in the school is the Pleasantville High School Organ Club. It is the only high school group in America to be affiliated as a student group of the American Guild of Organists.

Members play regularly for convocations and assemblies and play the tower chimes each noon hour. The Club meets bi-weekly to discuss projects, share ideas, and hear lectures. Each year, a number of trips are made to organ factories and to outstanding organs in the nearby area. Trips made this year include the West Point Cadet Chapel, Riverside Church, and Columbia University, where each member is required to play. Many members serve as substitute organists and choirmasters in their own churches as well as doing substitute work in other churches. Mr. Fossum is the founder and faculty advisor of the club, and Dr. Wasson is the organ instructor.

Officers: Robert Paine, President; David Stech, Vice-President; Carole Ann Wallin, Treasurer; Ellen Lockwood, Secretary.

Future Nurses

The Future Nurses Club was organized to help girls of high school age who want to enter the nursing field. Programs include films, speakers, and field trips.

Field trips this year have been to Bellevue Hospital in New York City and the Martha Wilson Home. A preview of the Halloween House entertainment was given at the Milbank Home, and a collection of dolls was donated to the Martha Wilson Home. Christmas candy was sold to supplement the club's treasury. There are 22 members, all of whom are charter members of the National Future Nurses Club.

The Commercial Club is an organization of girls, under the leadership of Miss Nulty, who intend to enter careers in the business world upon graduation from high school. Speakers from various organizations and firms address the group, and the members visit business offices to learn what their future jobs may be like. The group also acts as a service club for community organizations in and out of school.

One of the school's fastest growing organizations, this is the only activity that meets every day. Its home, room five, offers a place of quiet repose for those who wish to escape the cares of the studious life every noon time. Under the direction of Mrs. Lomont, the Chess Club sponsors a tournament to determine the champion chess player of PHS. Occasionally it also sends a team to compete with other schools.

Chess Club

The Junior Classical League, under the direction of Mrs. Lomont, is interested in gaining a better understanding of the humanities in general, with particular emphasis on the Greek and Roman cultures. This is achieved through various activities which include an annual theater party, a toga draping, and a Spartan contest, featuring games and races as played by the Romans. At the end of the year, prizes are awarded to the winners of the Olympics, and medals given to the best Latin students. As their major project, the Junior Classical League also sponsors a yearly clothing drive for the Save the Children Federation.

The Math Club is an organization founded for the purpose of giving those who enjoy mathematics an opportunity to probe deeper into this subject. Students get a chance to see and work out problems which are more challenging and more fun than those they encounter in class.

Math Club

Members also participate in the "mathletics", or interscholastic math contests. In these contests, teams of students from several schools meet to compete against each other in solving mathematical problems.

N.A.C. Review Dubbed Success

This year's Noon-Athletic Council Talent Show was a great success — if audience reaction can be used as a standard. In most of the acts, however, the talent shown was not enough to make the show worth its name.

Acts which featured the guitar and drama were the following: F.O.R. Trio — Russel Fragus, Gery Donellan, Art Ryerson; The Frokers — Jimmy Sullivan, Charlie Hughes, Steve Strombeck; The Nomads — Hughes Strombeck, Sullivan, Rich Friedman, Tom Wolman, and Bill Valentini; and the Night Riders — Romeo Fontaine, and Mike Geranish.

A classic portrayal of "Goldilocks and the Three Bears" was presented by a group of girls with Shelly Lerman as narrator and a group of girls as Goldilocks.

Student's Day Plans Formed

Students of Pleasantville High are once again looking forward to "Student's Day." This year it will be held on Thursday, February 7, 1963. For the newcomers to P.H.S., who may be wondering what Student's Day is, it is that glorious day when the students become the administrators rather than the administered.

An assembly honoring the "Teachers for a Day" will start the proceedings. Following the gathering, the new officials will retire to their various offices. As the Superintendent of Schools, John McGrath will take up lodgings over the local bakery, downtown. While Superintendent McGrath is learning about the trials and tribulations of his job, Jim Branigan will be attending to his many duties as the temporary principal of P.H.S. Meanwhile, the Director of Instruction, Dave Watts, will be working with the ore — Ellen Guinness. Last, but not least, Tom Wolman, Administrative Assistant, will be in charge of the classes will be in session of the student and alternates. All persons's cooperation in Student's Day is successful and by students — Milman, Robert, and Pearson, Gerstater, Philippe, and Colsey. If this is any indication of their talent...

With all of its faults, the Talent Show was a great success with most of the students, as indicated by the large crowds every day.

Our thanks and congratulations are offered to Jeff Milman and Jack Daly, who acted as emcees, and to Nancy Turner and Katy Barry, who both portrayed "Miss Noon Hour Commission" in the second (thank heaven!) N.A.C. Talent Show.

any more of them. A room may then be at school. A room, under the management of Jim Feeney, has opened shortly after our return to school in January. It is hoped that the store (in the janitor's closet) will relieve teachers of the job of collecting money in class.

Projection Crew

This highly functional group offers its members technical training, a means of service to its school and community, an opportunity to help teachers with class instruction, and a little social fun on the side. These competent projectionists show films for classes, community groups, and noon-hour programs. Due to the construction of that little green-and-white sound trailer, the football games and pep rallies went off without a hitch this fall.

The crew's project for this year is the reconstruction of the sound system in the gym, a significant step in PHS' dance production. For those members especially interested in electronic equipment, there is a Radio Club, a branch of the Projection Crew.

They help organize the dramatic activities of the school and meet in private homes to read and discuss other plays. The fall season opened with three student-directed one act plays. Under the direction of Mr. Kohn, the students learn the art of self-expression.

This year PHS takes special pride in commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of our military band, the oldest in New York State, having been founded in 1913. In keeping with its proud tradition of vigorous activity in the past, the band is continuing to remain busy with its schedule of performances at football games, pep rallies, parades, and its crowning glory, the Band Concert, April 5th of this year. The band has also received honor from many of its individual participants who have been selected for the All-State and All-County Bands and Orchestras, and chosen as soloists for other musical events.

The most notable event in which the band participated as a group was the Macy Day Parade in White Plains. Members of the band at All-County this year were: Jim Willis, Chip

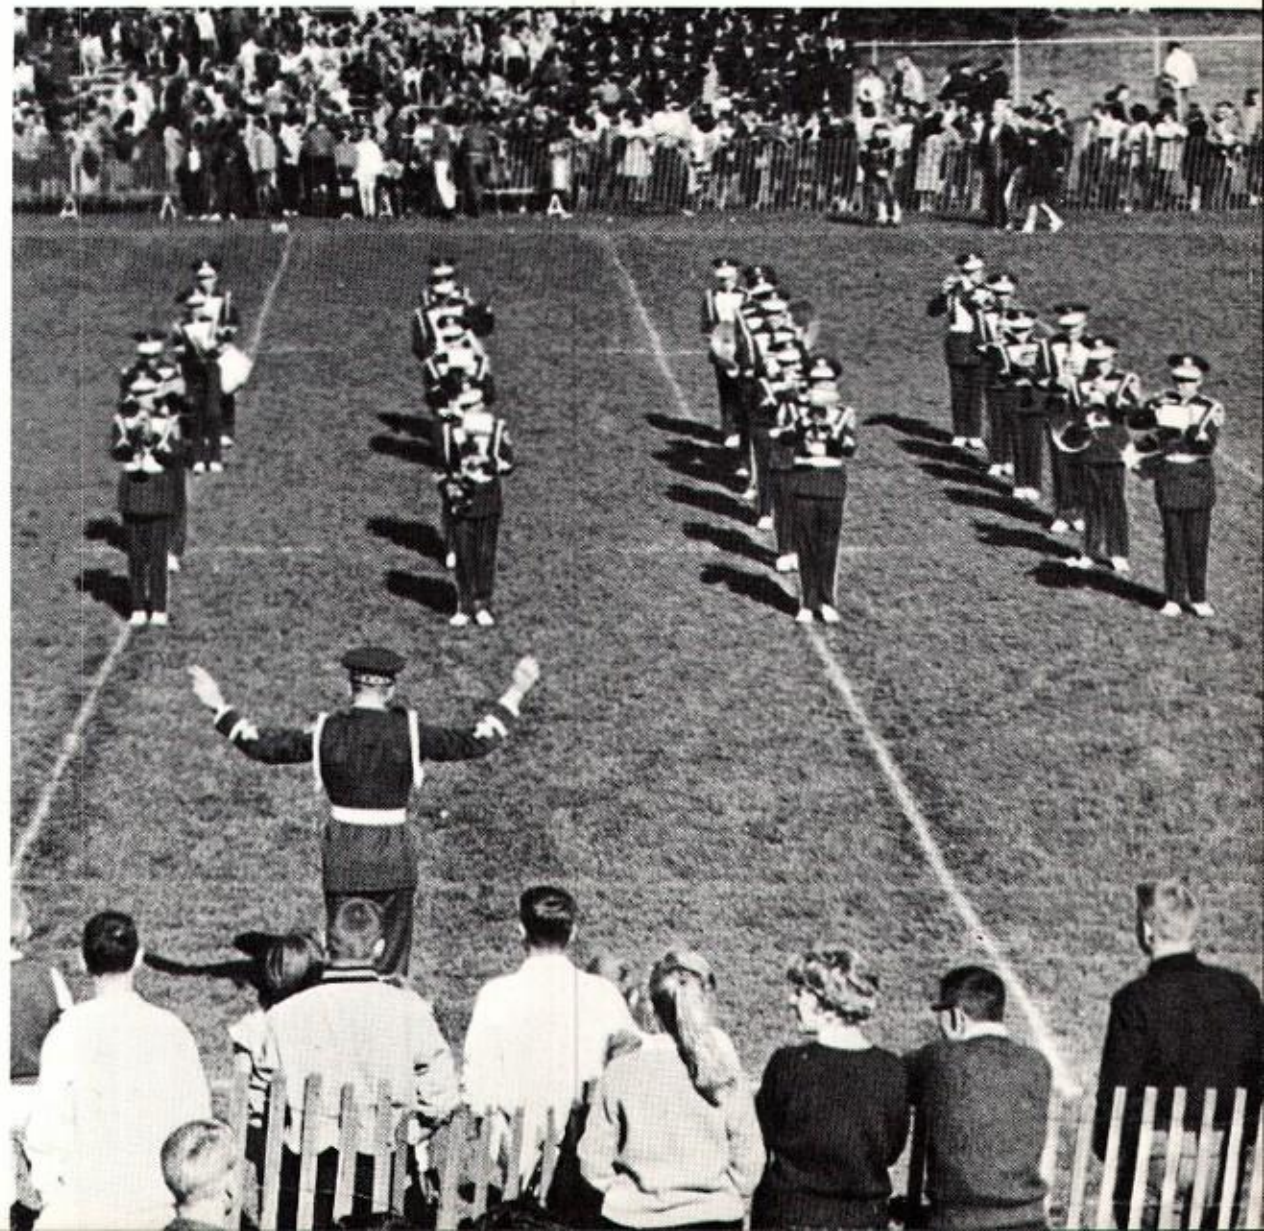

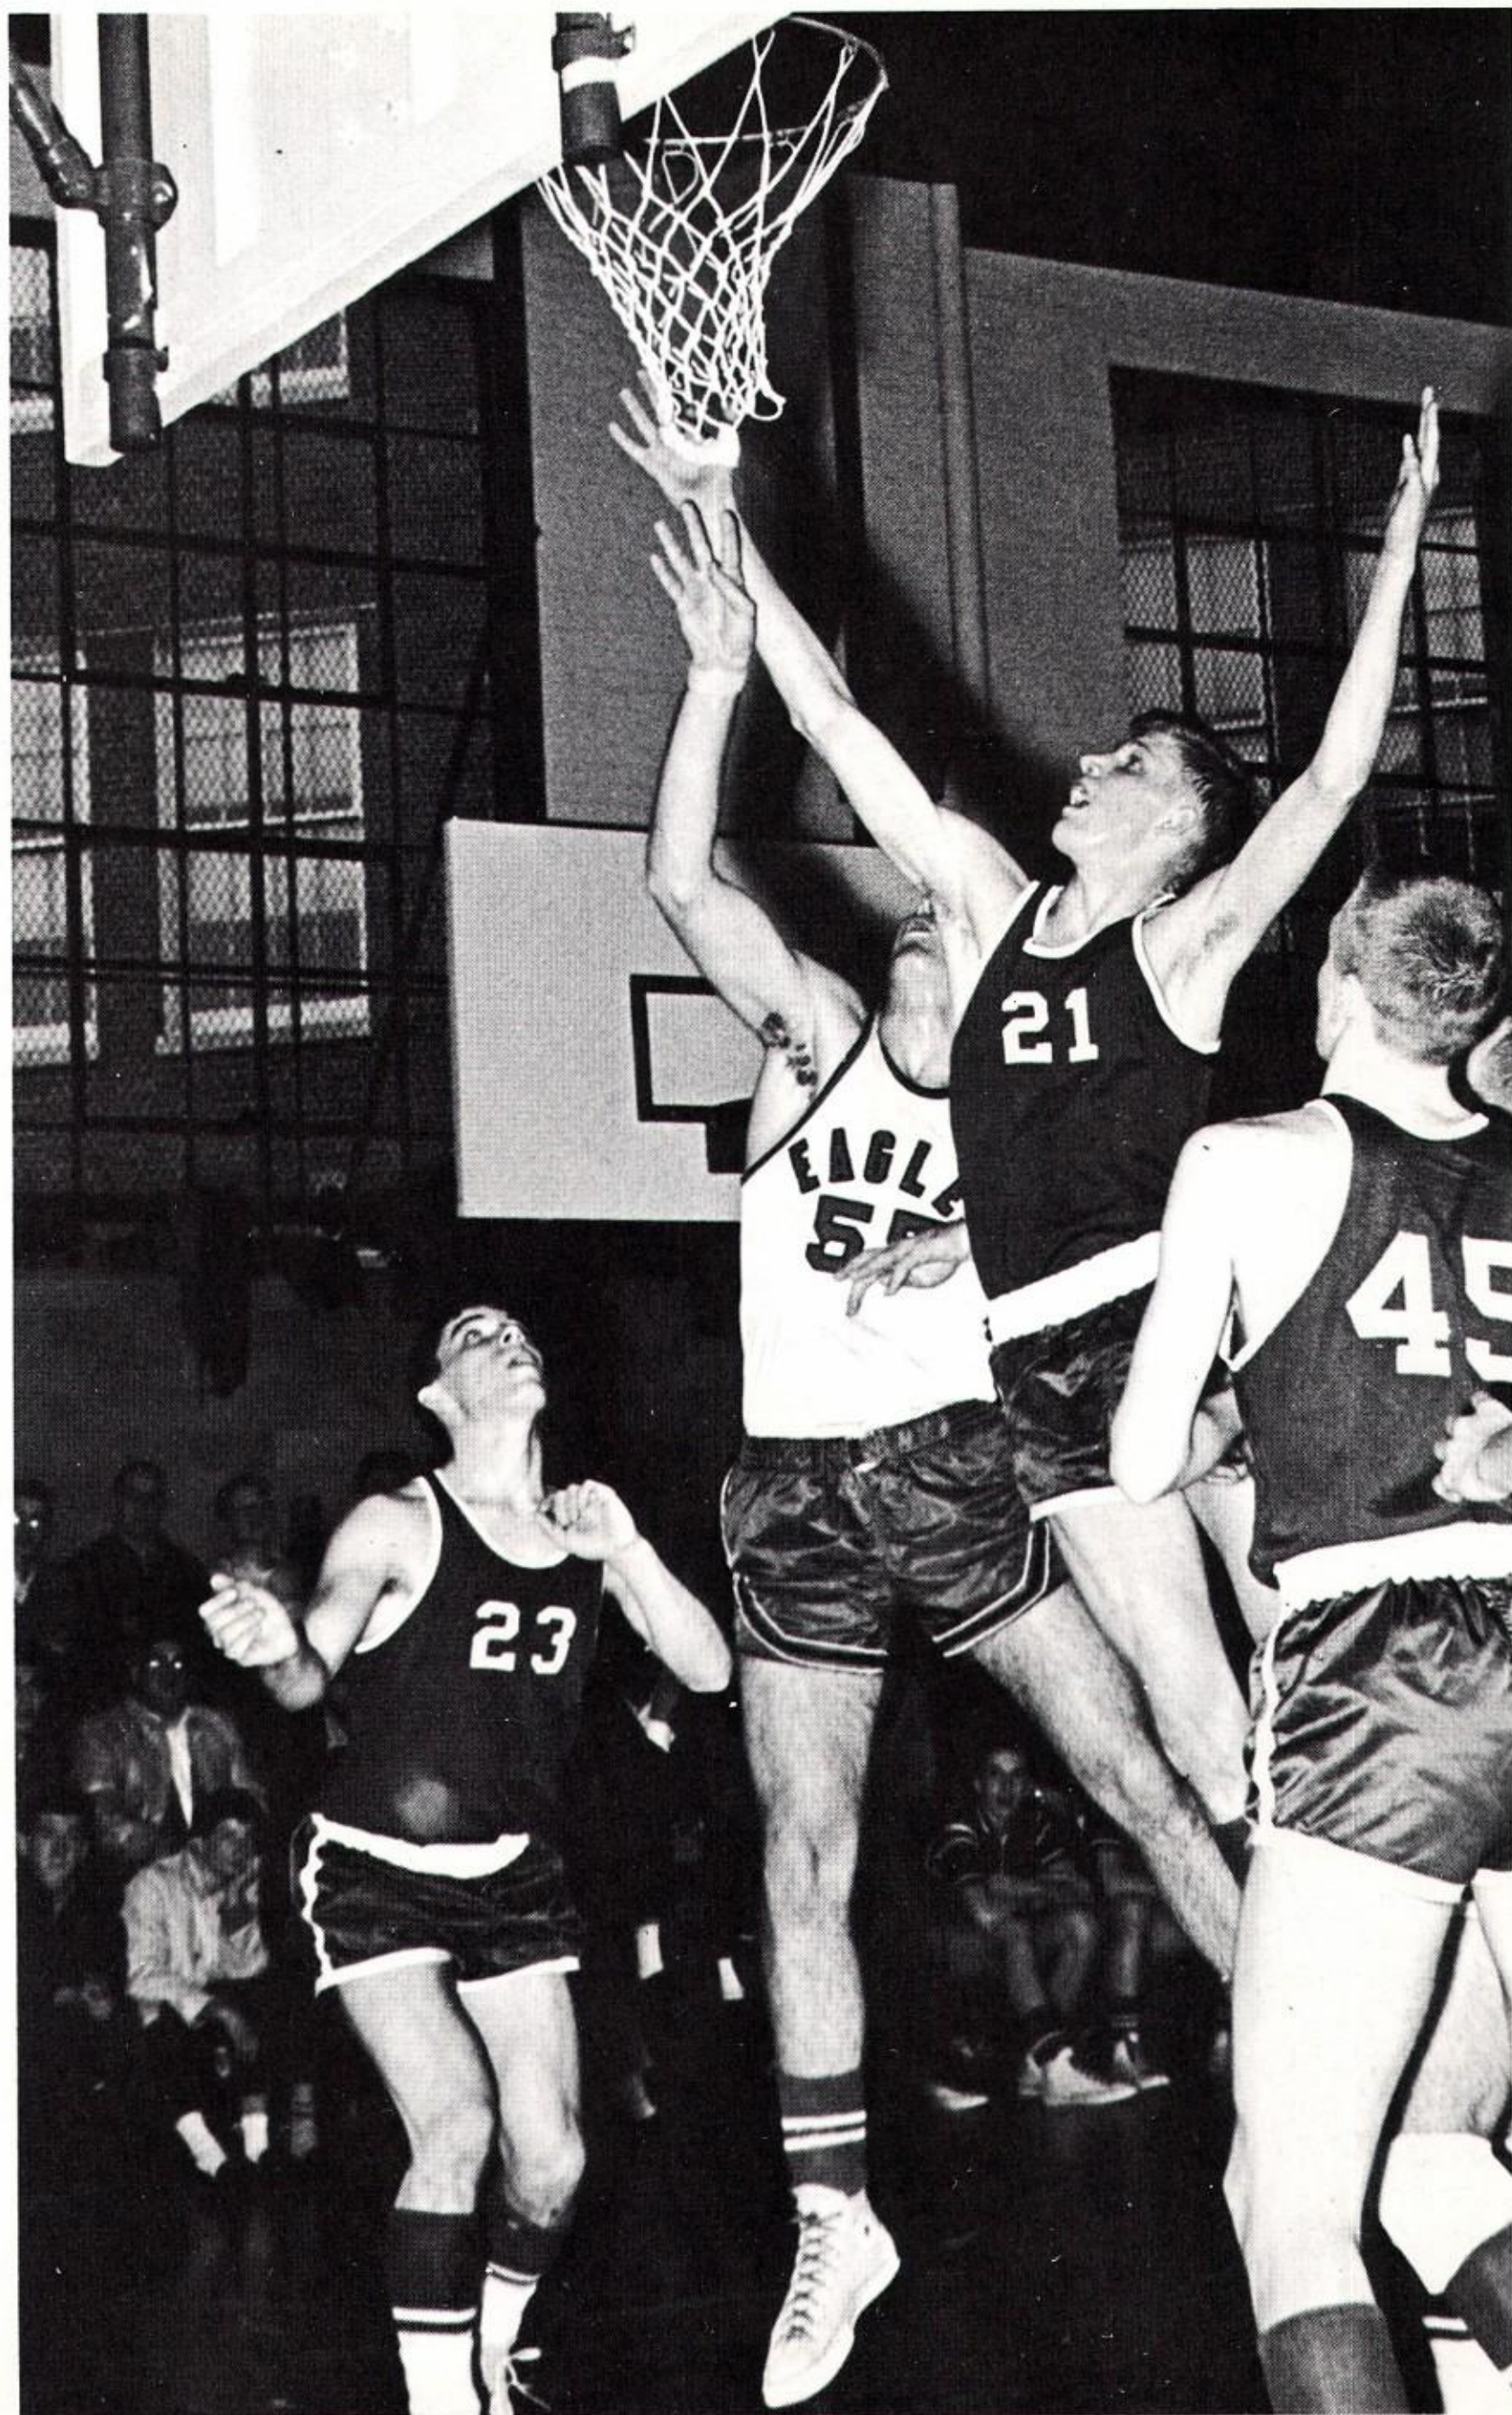

Band

Tiesler, Howard Zweifel, Dana Randall, and John Howe. Those in the Westchester Repertoire Symphony were Bruce Greene (snare drum), Chip Tiesler (tympani), and Jim Willis (base trombone).

This was the team that could not be expected to match last year's record. These boys would play well, but not well enough; so thought the PHS student body. Despite this attitude, the Panthers produced one of the finest football seasons Pleasantville has ever known. Fine leadership, team work, and, above all, unwavering team spirit once again won Pleasantville the SWIAC title.

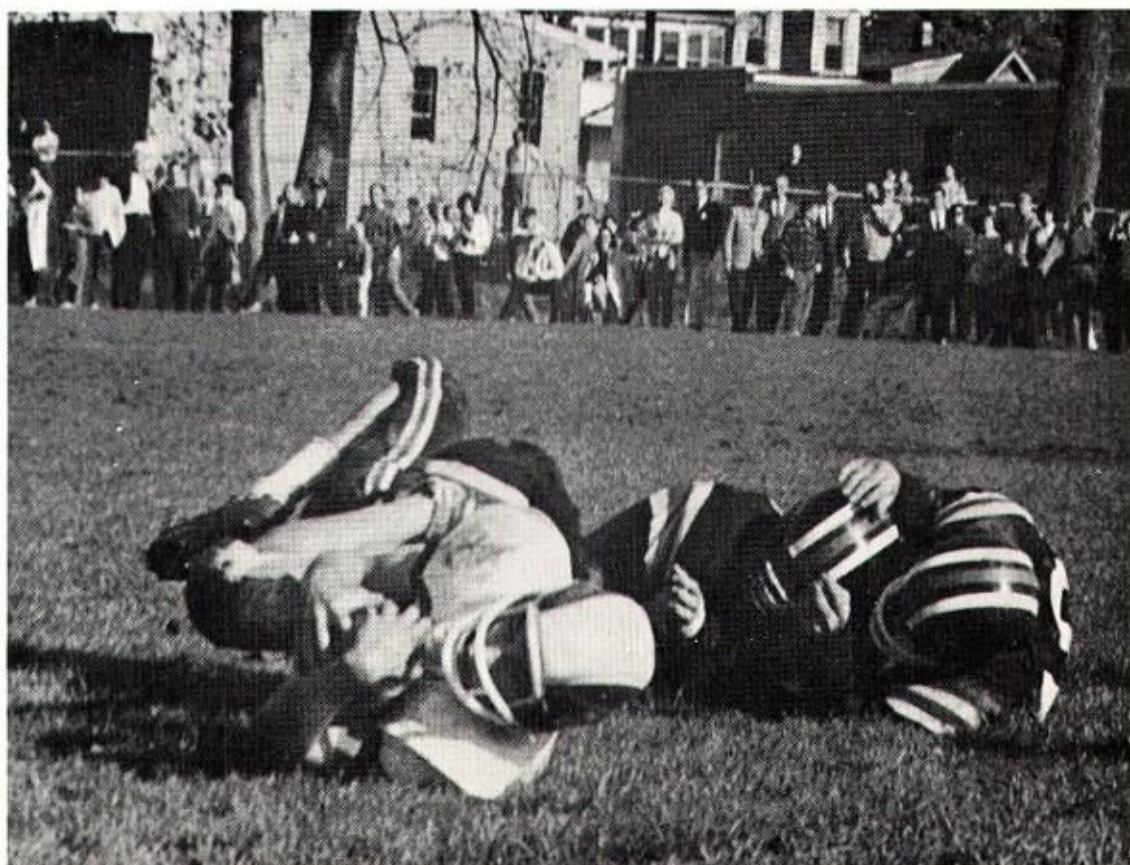

They opened the season by trouncing Fox Lane 26-12, then securing a 27-0 victory over Eastchester. No one can forget that drizzly, fateful day at Sleepy Hollow when the winning touchdown was nullified and the game lost by one point. Even this, however, could not defeat the team, as they proved by pouncing back to fry Rye. Next came the Pelicans, who finally bowed after a long struggle, and then the Huskies, who could not contain our Panthers. The season ended in a blaze of glory, when the team fought icy blasts of wind and rain to slaughter the Greely Quakers, avenging last year's only loss.

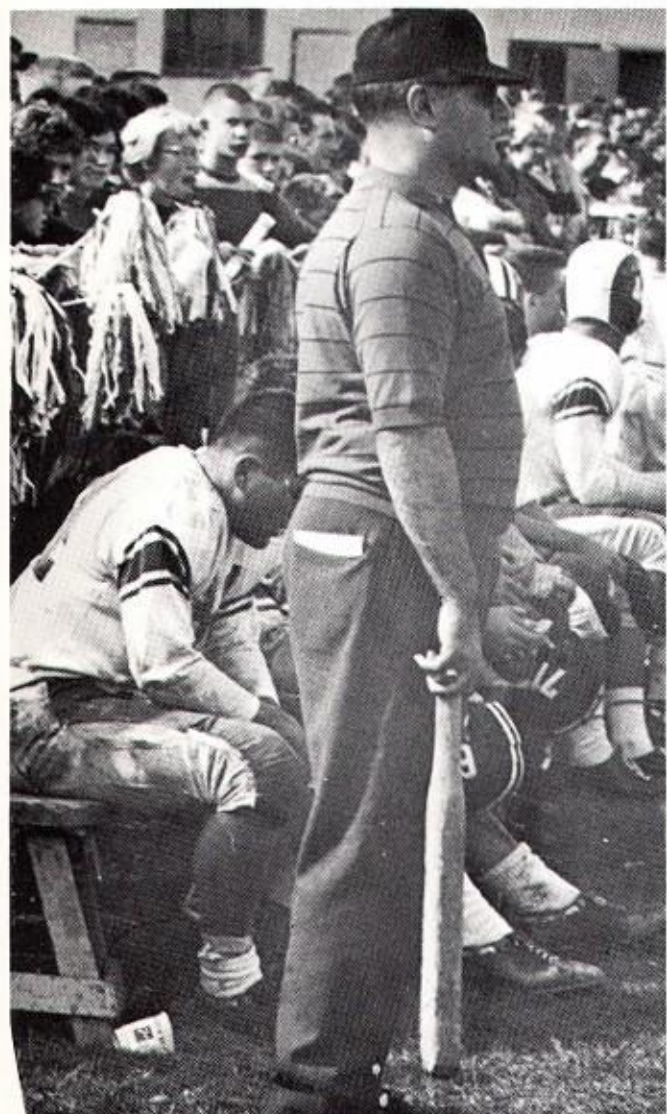

This team was a fine one and the reward was not the SWIAC title, which they share with Rye and Sleepy Hollow, but the "Coach of the Year" award given to their trainer, Coach Kurackek. These are the boys who made it possible, our PHS Panthers, the team who knew they could win.

Varsity Basketball

Pleasantville High School has finished the 1962-1963 basketball season in fine fashion. Our Panthers ended the regular season with an 11 win and 5 loss record, placing them second in S W I A C behind rival Sleepy Hollow.

After winning the first game, the team lost two in a row. With spirited determination, we bounced back to beat Sleepy Hollow and break their 21-game winning skein. Then the hoopsters went on to win ten out of their last thirteen games, receiving an invitation to the County Tournament.

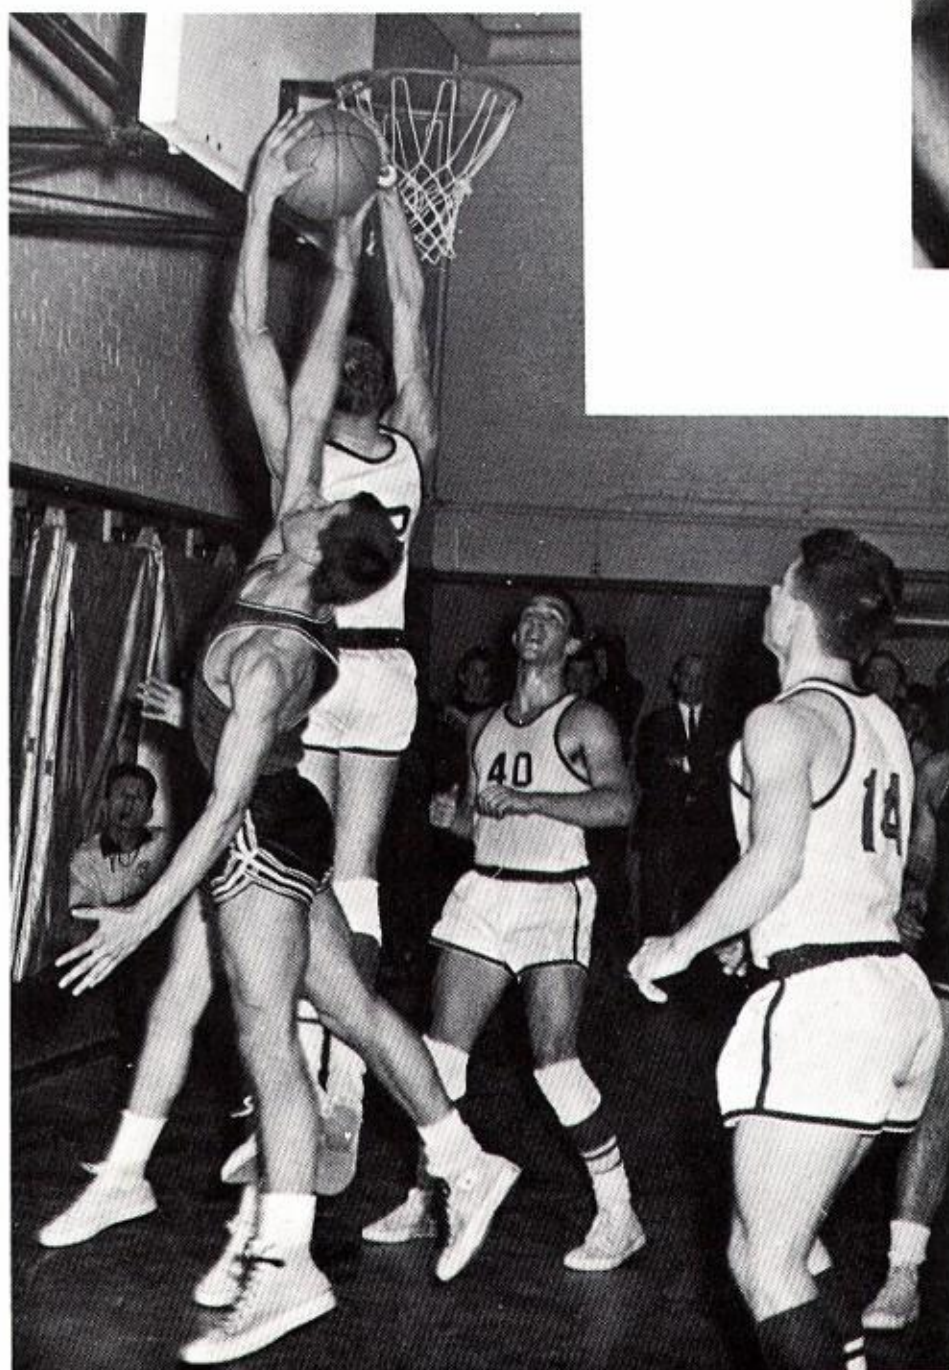

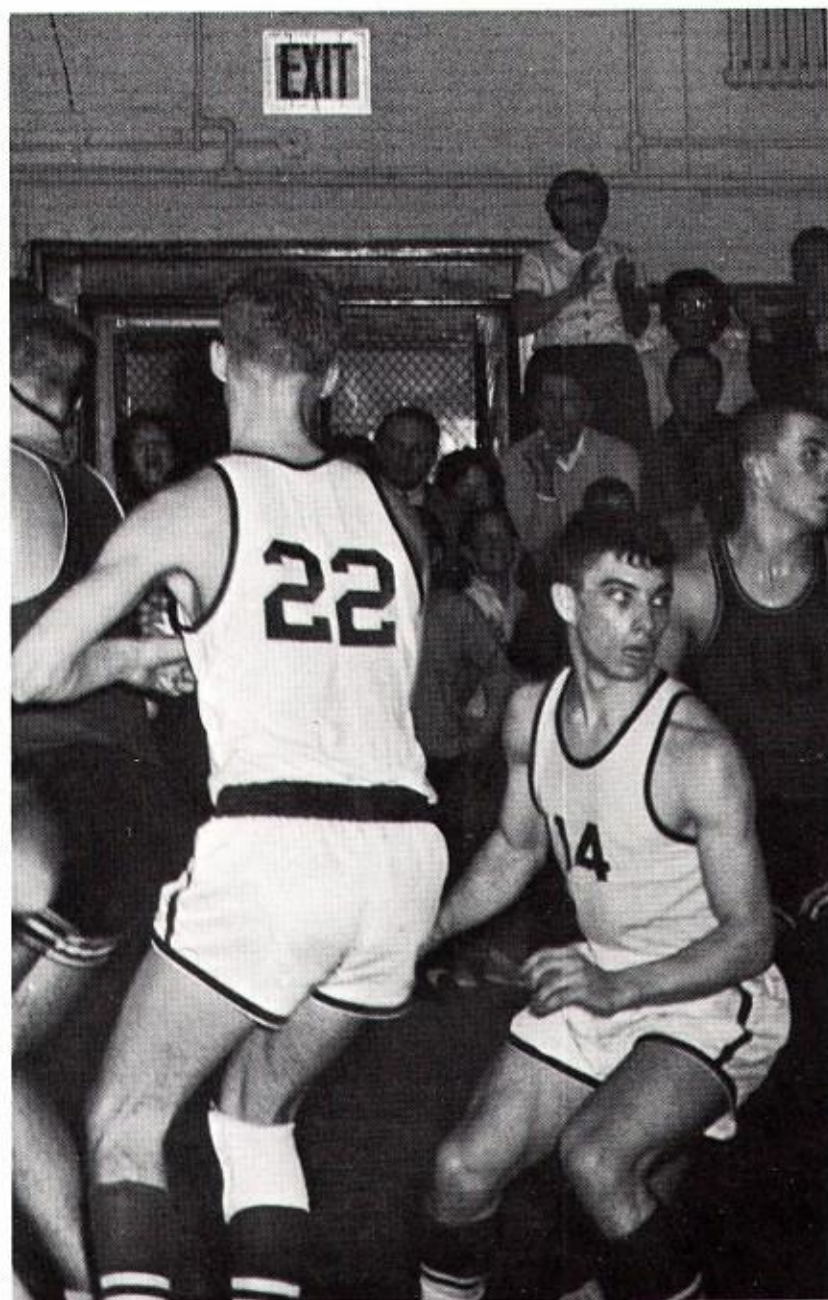

Paced by the scoring of Bob Ryan and Bob O'Keefe and the rebounding of Bob Pearson and Roy Colsey, the team played both interesting and well planned ball. Dave Koteen's excellent job in handling the ball in the guard position gave us a considerable advantage in our scoring. Jeff Kelly, Jeff Milman, Jim Hopkins and Mike Phillippo aided in making the season a success by turning in a good job every chance that they got to play.

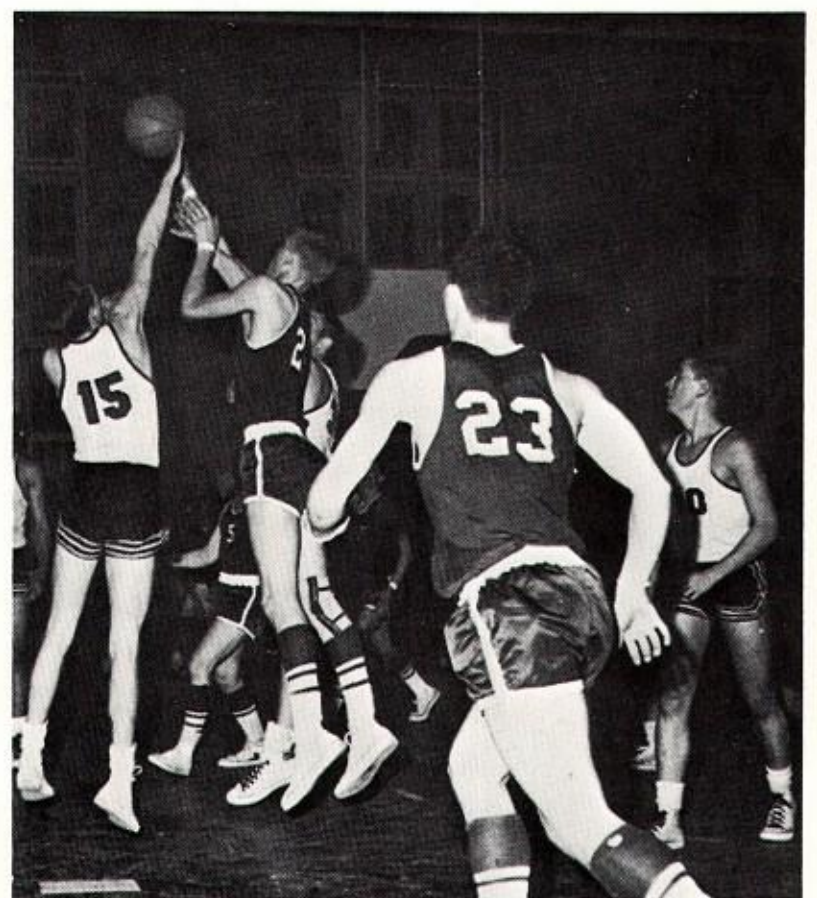

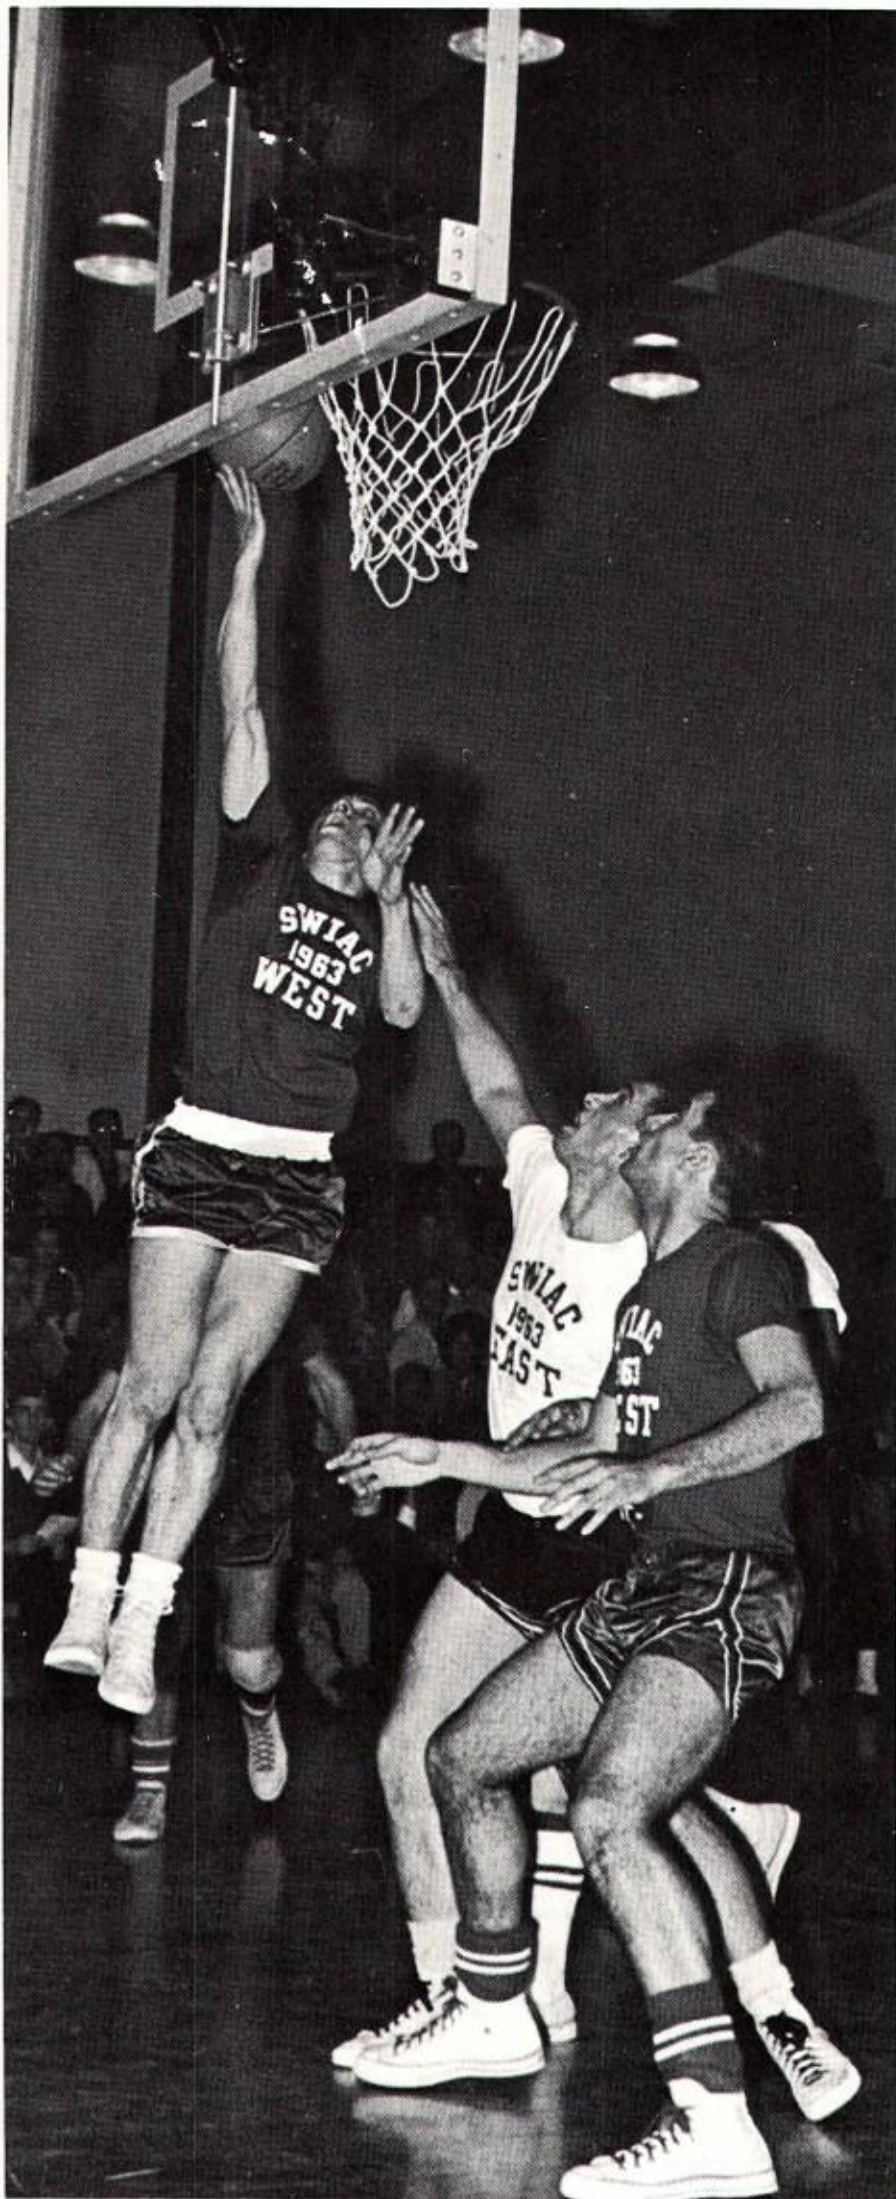

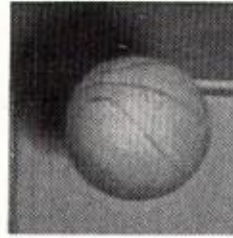

Co-Captains: Bob O'Keefe, Robert Ryan.

ANTIETAM

September 17, 1862

Meet Another Class of '63

Many of the men in the battle of Antietam were just your age — and so ignorant they didn't know right from left. To teach them to march, their sergeants tied straw to their right feet, hay to their left. Hence "Hayfoot, strawfoot," and the Civil War rookie's nickname, Strawfoot. (And by the way, can you tell hay from straw?)

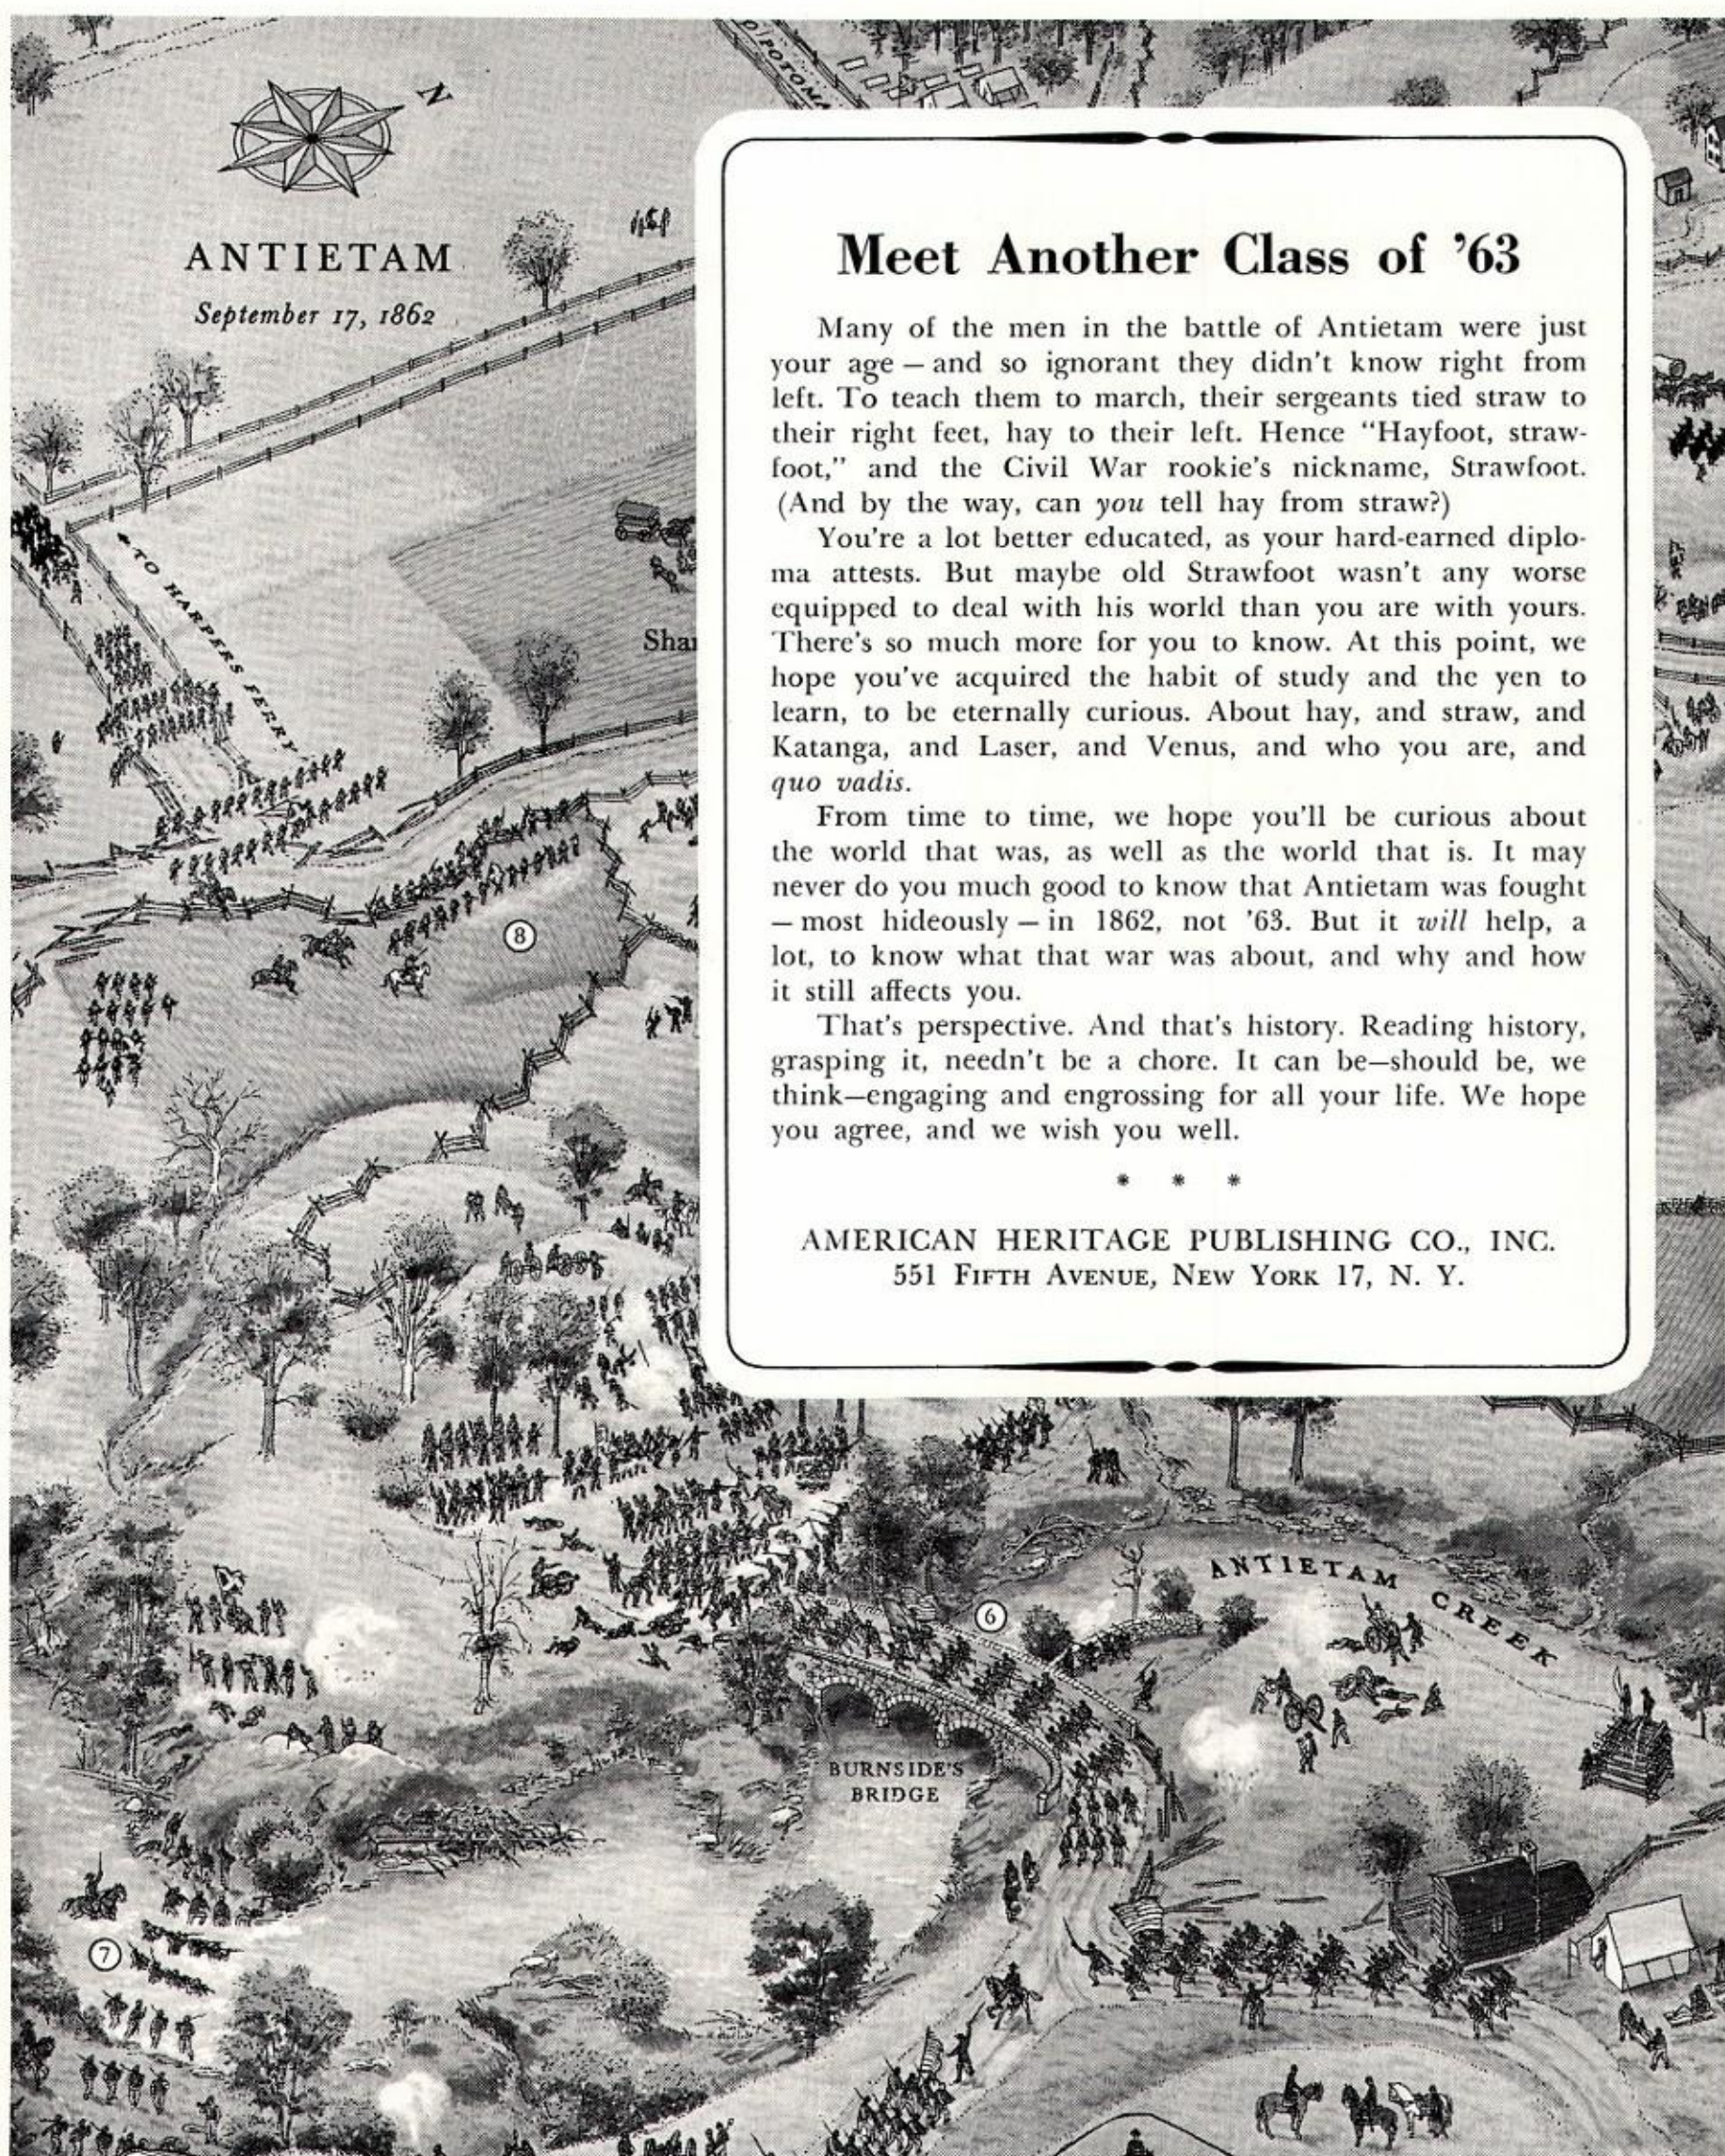

You're a lot better educated, as your hard-earned diploma attests. But maybe old Strawfoot wasn't any worse equipped to deal with his world than you are with yours. There's so much more for you to know. At this point, we hope you've acquired the habit of study and the yen to learn, to be eternally curious. About hay, and straw, and Katanga, and Laser, and Venus, and who you are, and quo vadis.

From time to time, we hope you'll be curious about the world that was, as well as the world that is. It may never do you much good to know that Antietam was fought — most hideously — in 1862, not '63. But it will help, a lot, to know what that war was about, and why and how it still affects you.

That's perspective. And that's history. Reading history, grasping it, needn't be a chore. It can be—should be, we think—engaging and engrossing for all your life. We hope you agree, and we wish you well.

The following characterizations are descriptions of behavior. It is recommended that where possible the judgments of a number of the pupil's present teachers be indicated by the use of the following method or by checks:

Example: MOTIVATION	Purposeless	Vacillating	Usually Purposeful	Effectively motivated	Highly motivated
M (5) indicates the most common or modal behavior of the pupil as shown by the agreement of five of the eight teachers reporting. The location of the numerals to the left and right indicates that one teacher considers the pupil vacillating and that two teachers consider him highly motivated. If preferred, the subject fields or other areas of relationship with the pupil may be used to replace the numerals.
1. MOTIVATION	Purposeless	Vacillating	Usually Purposeful	Effectively motivated	Highly motivated
2. INDUSTRY	Seldom works even under pressure	Needs constant pressure	Needs occasional prodding	Prepares assigned work regularly	Seeks additional work
3. INITIATIVE	Merely conforms	Seldom initiates	Frequently initiates	Consistently self-reliant	Actively creative
4. INFLUENCE AND LEADERSHIP	Negative	Co-operative but retiring	Sometimes in minor affairs	Contributing in important affairs	Judgment expected makes things go
	Indifferent	Self-centered	Somewhat socially concerned	Generally concerned	Deeply and actively concerned
	Unreliable	Somewhat dependable	Usually dependable	Conscientious	Assumes much responsibility
	Not dependable	Questionable at times	Generally honest	Reliable, dependable	Consistently trustworthy
	Hyperemotional	Excitable	Usually well-balanced	Well-balanced	Exceptionally stable
